Gap Year Escape

About Blog

Gap Year Escape started in 2009 and documents a seven year, seven continent, 50 country adventure. Gap Years are no longer exclusively taken pre-university and professionals on career breaks and even seniors partake. This is reflected in the diverse audience that Gap Year Escape has and range of topics we cover from hostels and luxury resorts to relaxation and adventure sports. The website is run by London based bloggers with a real passion for all things travel.
